In the face of the "Labour coup" and after Chilcot...

Defend Jeremy Corbyn Prosecute Tony Blair!

There couldn't be a bigger contrast between Jeremy Corbyn and ex Labour leader Tony Blair.

The Chilcot Report shows Blair lied to take us into an illegal war in Iraq.

Hundreds of thousands of Iraqi people and hundreds of British soldiers died. The Middle East is still suffering the consequences.

Jeremy Corbyn was a leading figure in the massive anti-war movement that opposed the invasion of Iraq.

It's Blair's supporters in the Labour Party who are attempting to depose Corbyn as Labour leader instead of taking on the Tories.

Corbyn has an overwhelming mandate to lead Labour. Thousands attended #keepcorbyn rallies across Britain. But 172 MPs believe they have more rights than hundreds of thousands of Labour Party members.

The likely challenger to Corbyn, Angela Eagle, backed Blair's war. How can she possibly lead the party?

We support Corbyn's right to lead Labour and his stand against austerity, racism and war.

We believe Blair should face prosecution for taking us into an illegal war in Iraq.

We want a fight against Tory austerity and racism now and support the mass protests organised by Stand up to Racism and the People's Assembly on Saturday 16 July in London and Glasgow.
