

After the referendum unite to demand...

No more austerity No to racism

TORIES MUST GO

NATIONAL DEMONSTRATION:

Saturday 16 July
Assemble 12 noon,
BBC Broadcasting House,
Portland Place,
London W1A 1AA

THE TORIES have been plunged into crisis by the result of the EU referendum. David Cameron will soon be gone.

The Tories will use Brexit to whip up anti-immigrant racism and accelerate their austerity policies and attacks on living standards. George Osborne has already threatened an emergency budget which will hit ordinary people hard.

But it doesn't have to be this way. The Tories are weaker and more divided than they have ever been. It looks likely that an early General Election will have to be called when Cameron steps down. However people voted in the referendum, we now need to unite and take to the streets to demand an end to austerity policies, to stand up to anti-immigrant racism and show our solidarity with refugees and migrants.

This demonstration, called by the People's Assembly and Stand Up to Racism, is the positive and united response to the political earthquake on 23 June.

We are not spectators while the Tories fall out. We must make ourselves participants in shaping the future.

We will not let racism grow; we demand an end to austerity.

After the referendum unite to demand...

No more austerity No to racism

TORIES MUST GO

NATIONAL DEMONSTRATION:

Saturday 16 July
Assemble 12 noon,
BBC Broadcasting House,
Portland Place,
London W1A 1AA

THE TORIES have been plunged into crisis by the result of the EU referendum. David Cameron will soon be gone.

The Tories will use Brexit to whip up anti-immigrant racism and accelerate their austerity policies and attacks on living standards. George Osborne has already threatened an emergency budget which will hit ordinary people hard.

But it doesn't have to be this way. The Tories are weaker and more divided than they have ever been. It looks likely that an early General Election will have to be called when Cameron steps down. However people voted in the referendum, we now need to unite and take to the streets to demand an end to austerity policies, to stand up to anti-immigrant racism and show our solidarity with refugees and migrants.

This demonstration, called by the People's Assembly and Stand Up to Racism, is the positive and united response to the political earthquake on 23 June.

We are not spectators while the Tories fall out. We must make ourselves participants in shaping the future.

We will not let racism grow; we demand an end to austerity.